Where trust becomes the evidence that changes systems.

NCSUN · THE ROUND TABLE · NOVEMBER 2026

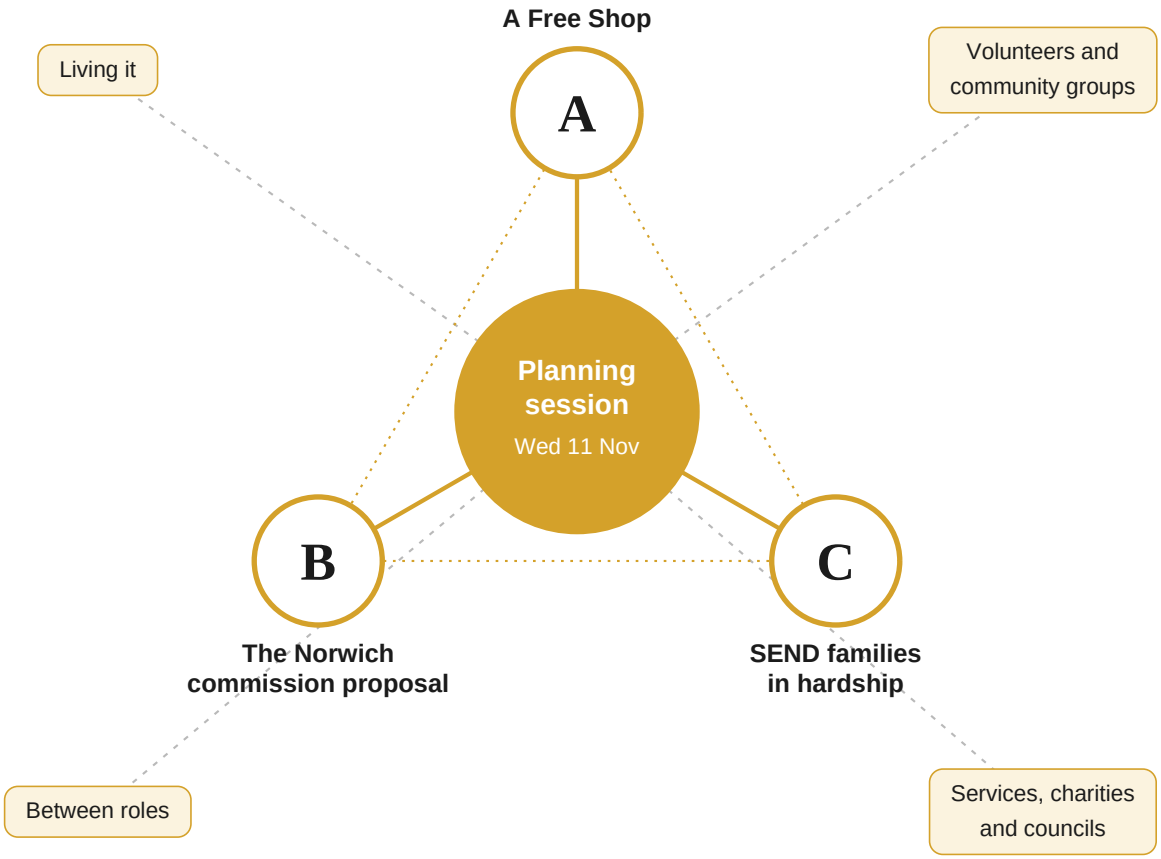

The Round Table starts online in January. Help us plan it.

Planning session

Wednesday 11 November · 1:30 to 3pm

Online on Microsoft Teams · drop in for the part that matters to you, late is fine

NCSUN's first year was busier than we expected. The Round Table brings together everyone who holds a piece of how people get help. On the 11th we share our first year and look at three ideas that came to us from people living them. We're not here to run them: we want to find who would like to take each one forward, and connect you with each other.

Everyone who holds a piece of how people get help, around one table.

Online: scan the code with your phone camera, or visit ncsun-round-table.netlify.app. It has a short reply form and the joining link comes by email.
No website? Just email charli@ncsun.org with your name and we'll send you the joining link.
Can't make it? Reply anyway and you'll hear what happens next in January.

Three ideas that started on the ground

Each came to us from people living it. On the 11th we'll say a little more about each, give them equal time, then ask where you'd like to be involved. Scan a code to read more.

A

A Free Shop

No till and no prices: everything is donated and everything is free, for anyone who needs it. Could Norwich have one, and who would make it happen?

B

The Norwich commission proposal

People living with hardship sit as equals with the people who run and fund services, to work out what causes hardship here and what to do about it. Is it right for Norwich, and who would want to be part of it?

C

SEND families in hardship

Families of children with special educational needs and disabilities who are struggling already turn up at community groups, food cupboards and events. Should the groups they trust be part of how Norfolk's new SEND system reaches them, and how can we make that happen?

INTERESTED IN ONE OF THEM?

Say so on the reply form, or email charli@ncsun.org. You can say you want to be involved, that you know someone who should be, or that you have an idea.

How joining works

- On a computer, Teams opens in your browser. Nothing to install.
- On a phone, you may need the free Teams app.
- Join however suits you: camera on or off, your name or just your organisation, talking, typing in the chat, or simply listening.
- Live captions are available in Teams.
- The session is recorded. Rather not appear? Tell us and we'll edit you out. Full details are on the page.
